ARMCHAIR TINNA

With its elegant, lightweight design, the stackable armchair Tinna secures a prime spot on sunny terraces, balconies and in cafés. The sturdy aluminium frame with a high-quality wood look is available with either technical outdoor fabric or woven polyethylene straps. Both materials are water-repellent, easy to care for and quickly ready for use again after a rain shower. The flexible fabric comfortably adapts to the body and ensures a high level of seating comfort. The scratch-resistant wood look combines the natural appearance of wood with the easy-care properties of aluminium.

• Stackable & space-saving: Quickly rearranged and efficiently stored away – ideal for flexible outdoor spaces
• Weather-resistant & easy-care: Water-repellent materials and scratch-resistant wood look for minimal maintenance
• High seating comfort: Flexible fabric adapts to the body and ensures comfort even when sitting for longer periods
