With Bran, the popular industrial style finally makes its way into your outdoor spaces – without compromising on professional suitability. The black powder-coated steel frame meets a seat and backrest made of transparently lacquered acacia wood, whose striking grain delivers exactly the characteristic used look that guests immediately sense. Ergonomically shaped, solid acacia wood slats ensure noticeably high seating comfort – indoors and outdoors alike. Thanks to weather-resistant, easy-care materials, Bran remains relaxed to handle in daily business, and after service it can be stacked away to save space in storage.
