Our outdoor all-rounder Emilia, made of glass fiber reinforced polypropylene, impresses with high stability and low weight. Its round, organic shape ensures exceptional seating comfort and gives the chair a modern, inviting look. The material is UV- and weather-resistant, making it ideal for long-term outdoor use. The chair is easy to maintain, stackable, and therefore extremely practical for everyday use in gastronomy. A matching armchair and bar stool are also available – for a harmonious, well-thought-out furnishing concept.
